AIM:

to stimulate transnational exchange of good practices and relevant experiences in developing modern and challenging action-based learning contexts for professional people of the youth NGOs (with a focus on youth workers) based on social entrepreneurship so that they could enhance development of their organisations and their target groups.

SPECIFIC OBJECTIVES:

O1 Enhancing the professional development of at least 30 experts of youth NGOs in 3 countries through combined training approach in social entrepreneurship (practical workshops and virtual portfolio).

O2 Promoting an innovative non-formal way of learning/working with young volunteers within youth NGOs (LIVE Lab) and elaborating a Lab methodology.

O3 - Strengthening the cooperation between youth NGOs and public authorities through a transnational online network to foster social entrepreneurship initiatives.

ACTIVITIES:

Component 1:

Activity A1. Selecting 15 youth NGOs (5 from Romania, 5-Spain, 5-Germany) and 30 experts and youth workers from these 15 NGOs (2 participants for each organization) who will be directly involved into the project.

Activity A2. Organizing 3 practical workshops (WS – 1 day/event) for those 30 participants (one event in each country-WS1 in Romania, WS2-Spain, WS3-Germany). The main theme is "Is your youth NGO prepared for social entrepreneurship? Could become your organization an entrepreneurial one?".

Activity O1/A3: Creating a virtual portfolio with 8 modules as an educational modern ITC tool. The topics of modules are:

- NGO Inventory (Tools of Capacity Building).
- Social business models.
- Networking, Partnerships and Alliances.
- New forms of social innovation – Microvolunteering.
- Problem solving.
- Youth ventures in their communities.
- Practical case studies about social ventures within an NGO ("Stories that matter").
- Sustainable development.

Component 2:

Activity O2/A4: Development of implementation methodology of LIVE Lab. It is a creative approach of involving, motivating and stimulating the young volunteers into the youth NGOs in order to contribute proactively to a shift of these NGOs to social entrepreneurship and self-sustainability.

Activity A5. Organizing short training seminars for 30 participants (youth workers and experts of youth NGOs – one event in Romania (1 day), one in Spain (1 day) and one in Germany (1 day). Seminars are focused on how the participants could prepare, develop and implement a LIVE Lab for young volunteers within the youth NGOs based on the developed methodology.

Component 3:

Activity A6: it will be set up a transnational online network of cooperation composed of a large mix of youth organizations, public authorities, professionals, for learning and acting together in terms of fostering social entrepreneurship within the youth NGOs.

MAIN INTELLECTUAL OUTPUTS:

- a virtual portfolio with 8 e-learning modules.
- a methodology of LIVE Lab.
